Opera Theatre Company Part of the Music Season Ticket at SIAMSA TÍRE, TRALEE

“A premiere for Ireland, a swansong for OTC, this exquisite piece of music theatre raises the bar for Irish touring opera.” (Irish Times)

To tempt music lovers, Siamsa Tíre has introduced a Music Season Ticket. This season's ticket covers Opera Theatre Company's production of The Diary of Anne Frank, on the 2nd of October, a concert by renowned Irish pianist, John O'Connor on the 27th of November, and Crash Ensemble's nationwide tour, Stranger Folk which visits Tralee on the 8th of December. The Music Season ticket covers all three performances for €45 – great music at a great price! Music Season tickets can be purchased at our Box Office or over the phone up to the 2nd of October.

Opera Theatre Company's final performance in their 24 year history of touring is surely a production to savour. The company, along with Opera Ireland, is to close before the end of the year to make way for a new national opera company. All of the opera productions presented at Siamsa Tíre in recent years have been the work of Opera Theatre Company and have been enjoyed by Opera lovers in Kerry. Siamsa Tíre urges their fans to come along and support them for this, their final performance – they will be sadly missed.

The Diary of Anne Frank by Grigory Frid is described as vivid, insightful and heartrending. Sung in English, Anne Frank's powerful optimism and unbending will to live continue to instill awe. The focus is on her original words – her joy over a glimpse of blue sky, her budding love for Peter, her determination to remain courageous, her humour and hopes for freedom. Recent reviews of this production can be accessed on Siamsa Tíre's website – www.siamsatire.com. Individual tickets for the performance are €21/18.

Supporting emerging artists is another very important focus of Siamsa Tíre's activities. This season sees the launch of a new initiative – the Young Artist Series, in association with Kerry School of Music. Three concerts during the season aim to introduce Kerry audiences to outstanding young solo artists and ensembles. This month's artist is soprano, Aishling O'Carroll who made her National Concert Hall début earlier this year. This is a great opportunity for all those interested in supporting young talent. Aishling's concert takes place on Tuesday 5th of October at 7.30pm. Tickets are €7/5.

Special Offer Tickets are only available through our Box Office (not online) on (066) 7123055. Please check out our website for all other bookings and further information - www.siamsatire.com
