New Season Event Guide May to September 2010 For Siamsa Tíre, Tralee

A New Season, a New-Look Event Guide
Join us in Siamsa Tíre for an entertainment packed summer!

Siamsa Tíre is delighted to launch its new look event guide with an event-packed programme until the end of September.

The inaugural Féile Siamsa Tíre features (21 to 23 May), with plenty of opportunities for young musicians to show their talents, learn a few new skills and win some prizes. A visit by the much loved Opera Theatre Company brings the Marriage of Figaro to the Siamsa Stage at the end of May promising an evening of intrigue, melodrama and wonderful music.

For Kerry residents who have yet to see a production by the County's leading performers – Siamsa's National Folk Theatre, now is your opportunity. The 43rd Summer Season is already underway and continues until the end of September. This year's programme includes two of the best loved works from the Siamsa repertoire – Oileán (a celebration of the Blasket Islands) and Clann Lir (a moving version of the ancient Irish legend, the Children of Lir).

Folk Theatre performances are not just for visitors to the County and there is no better way of supporting your local arts centre than by coming along and buying a ticket to one of these dramatic and thought-provoking productions. Contact our Box Office for special local and family rates.

A host of other events feature in our line-up for the season, including The Marriage of Figaro, fantastic children's entertainment with the Mimirichi Clowns all the way from Russia, Kerry's Got Talent for 2010, active retired screenings, exhibitions, Summer Camps and more. Come and join us in Siamsa this summer, for fun, entertainment and a generous dollop of culture!

Copies of the Event Guide are available throughout the county and in Siamsa Tíre in Tralee. Siamsa Tíre's new website, with on-line ticket sales, will be going live before the end of June, packed with information, details on all our events and activities, and special offers.
